In Appreciation

It is the aspiration of every annual staff to put out a perfected journalistic publication of quality and worth. Such was the goal of our annual staff.

We express our sincere thanks to those who have contributed to the attainment of this goal. As we look back, we shall see the trials and tribulations of our annual develop into golden memories.

Thanks again.

Dedication

As we look back on the part of our lives spent at Rocky Mountain College, we realize that it has been a significant source of inspiration, reflection, educational achievement, valuable social and cultural experiences, and sad and happy memories. However subtly, our lives have changed as we have gained increasing understanding about life. Affecting the acquisition and use of this new knowledge is Rocky's special concern with religion and philosophy, which contributes toward a greater awareness and a spirit of fellowship. For this reason, the 1964 YELLOWSTONE is dedicated to the spiritual life on the campus.

President's Message

Congratulations to the Class of 1964. The number of students graduating with honors exceeds that of any class during the six years of my tenure as President of Rocky Mountain College. Thus, these words of praise to this highly distinguished class are well deserved. We look forward to your continued relationship to the College through the alumni association.

The Administration, Faculty, and Staff wish you success in your chosen careers. May the years ahead bring you peace, prosperity, and genuine happiness.

Faculty

Education means training people into the perfect exercise and kingly continence of their bodies and souls. It is a painful, continual and difficult work to be done by kindness, by watching, by warning, by precept, and by praise, but above all--by example.

Homecoming

Every one helps with the floats.

Our students work in all positions!

What da ya mean it's too big to get out the door?

Last year's queen receives a royal welcome.

Homecoming annually gives a special lift to autumn. This year the events, memorial to all, but especially to the participants, began with the presentation and election of queen candidates in assembly. Allusions to the Queen of Sheba gave a special flavor to the program.

Cheers and singing at a rally Friday evening led to the thrilling coronation of Miss Donna Blair by the reigning homecoming queen, Miss Carol Steinmetz. This event concluded with a snake dance through the campus, ending at a brilliant bonfire. After showing their school spirit, students parted to work on their floats.

Thirty-eight widely varying entries made the Homecoming Parade a success. Also successful was the action of the Bears, as they defeated the Mines, 20 to 13. The Homecoming Game was reigned over by Queen Donna Blair, and was distinguished by an excellent halftime performance by the band and a greased pig contest.

The exciting day came to a close with the alumni banquet and the Homecoming Dance based on the theme, "Fantasy of the Sea."

The Kings sing about the Queens.

The RMC faculty take off on a great hunting trip, good luck profs.

The Juniors used their big feet to prove their point.

Rocky's past and present combine nicely in this setting before the parade.

The AWS took up gambling for their float.

Rocky's wide and varied curriculum is depicted in the Senior's winning float.

What Happens To Freshmen?

Crime doesn't pay--(Disrespectful freshman push jelly beans.)

Survival of the fittest--tugging to the saturation point.

Cool calithsentics before bed-time.

Traditionally, initiation week consists of many compelling experiences: Compulsory beanie wear with freshmen subject to beanie check any hour, day or night; a strange variety of pre-determined wearing apparel; enforced nightly calisthenics (followed by lovely serenades to the freshmen girls by the freshmen boys); Kangaroo Court for miscreants; and a climactic finale--a tug-of-war over "the ditch" in which even the upperclassmen (who ordinarily win) get their just deserts and in which everyone has a soaking good time.

This year the freshmen were such good sports that initiation ended one day early. Initiation week is a challenging time for freshmen, but it can be enjoyable and when the week is ended, the freshman is a real, true member of RMC.

ALMA MATER

Neath the shadow of the Rimrocks
Stands a college firm and true
Whose green and golden banners
Hail Montana's skies of blue.

Rocky Mountain, we all love thee,

We raise our voices to thee
This college we love.

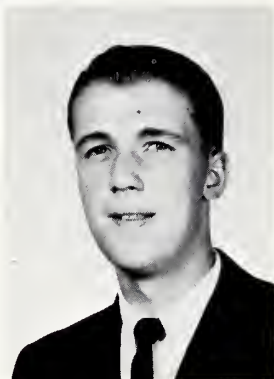

Thy traditions are an honor,
Thy fair campus we adore,
In thine hallowed halls we've tarried
College of the open door.

Life

PRESIDENT
Dick McCann

VICE-PRESIDENT
Mike Gustafson

Through its own initiative and through co-operative action with the faculty and administration, the 1963-64 Student Council has attempted to increase student responsibility. It has had an increasing role in promoting an intellectual atmosphere and a stimulating social life on campus. While being active in furthering these ends, the council has attempted to direct campus clubs and organizations in the carrying out of specific programs. Without their co-operation, little would have been accomplished. The "I" Club's work with Foreign Affairs Week and the "Peace Conference"; SEA, AWS, and various other organizations work with campus social activities; and the action of the Religious Life Council in Religion in Life Week are a few examples of what this kind of co-operation has been able to achieve.

Student government would like to think of itself as being an important and integral part of college life; this year's student council has attempted to make real that desire.

The Honor Forum is Rocky Mountain College's elucidation of a scholastic honorary group. The seminar is composed of students with a Q.H.A. of 3.00 and above who are specially selected by the faculty.

At monthly meetings, on the first Monday of each month, discussions are held on timely world problems in fields such as natural science, social science, religion, politics, ethics, and the arts. Each discussion is led by two students and one faculty member.

A.W.S. Christmas party.

The Associated Women Students became a sort of interpreter of the social calendar this year as they provided some bright spots in campus social life. Their first event of the year was "fun and frolic night" an unusual but fun-filled evening. Myron Vogeles was named most eligible bachelor at the girls' annual bachelor dance.

Sandra Muckleston was elected State Vice-president of A.W.S. at their convention early in the spring.

The group, as usual, did a marvelous job of combining the Spring Style show and the Miss R.M.C. pageant into a beautiful and moving spectacle.

This beautiful three-story structure, the gift of A. W. Kenny, is often the social center of the campus. There is an aura of sentiment surrounding Kenny Hall which is felt by its occupants as they recall its past, particularly

"I've Got the Sun in the Morning," sings Annie.

Novmeber 7, 8, and 9, Rocky Mountain College presented Irving Berlin's musical comedy "Annie Get Your Gun." This musical, which is based on the hilarious antics of Annie Oakley (Pat Darling) in pursuing a sharp shooter from a Wild West Show, Frank Butler (Scot Petterson). But Annie learned she "Can't Get A Man With A Gun" and finally settled as the second best sharp-shooter in the Butler and Oakley traveling show.

Carol Phelps becomes an Indian with the aid of Sherry Miller and Janice Carlson.

Rehearsals can be difficult for directors--Mr. Lawson and student-director Hal Mathew.

Annie and Frank sing one of the show's memorable songs, "Anything You Can Do I Can Do Better".

This musical also contains other entertaining characters such as Buffalo Bill (Dave Spencer), Charlie Davenport (Howard Hunter), Winnie Tate (Sandi Ritchey), Tommy Keller (Mike Meredith), and Chief Sitting Bull (Jeorg Stober).

"Annie" was directed by Professor Robley Lawson, with the assistance of Hal Mathew, student director.

Step right up, folks, and see the big show!

Annie and her brothers and sisters, "doing what comes naturally."

The Wild Horse Indian Dance was a high point.

Begun as an organization for foreign students, the "I" Club has become one of a much wider scope. Both foreign and American students are now members of our International Relations Club. The Club's objectives are threefold. It seeks to promote interest in current affairs, incite awareness of the complex world in which we live, and to inspire its members through fellowship and hard work.

This year the "I" Club, striving to fulfill its objectives, has sponsored a drive for books for Asian students, an International Dance, a disarmament conference, and Foreign Affairs Week.

Climax of the week was the Foreign Affairs Banquet

Religious Life Council

CAROL ANDERSON

The Religious Life Council, composed of representatives from on-and off-campus religious organizations and advised by Chaplain Elliot, co-ordinates all religious activities and works toward the realization of a sense of Christian Community.

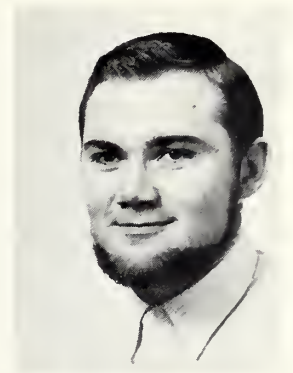

Activities contributing to religious life are the chapel services, meditations in the Bunch Memorial Chapel, grace at meals, hymn singing around the SUB fireplace, student denominational organizations, Bible study and prayer meetings, theological discussions, in the dorms, Religion in Life Week, led this year by Dr. Joseph Haroutunian, Doctor of Theology at the University of Chicago, and the efforts of Jew, Catholic and Protestant to join together in Universal brotherhood.

Weightlifting Team Wins State Championship

SQUATTING: Mike McIntire, Wayne Richardson, STANDING: Bill Kraske, Charles "Rebel" Bannerman, Mike Kotch.

Rocky's weightlifting team had an extremely successful year. They attended six meets, winning ten trophies and fourteen medals.

The team sponsored a Montana A.A.U. meet on our campus during the first weekend of May, at which all team members placed respectably.

The team made as fine a showing at the Junior National Regional meet at Alliance,

Nebraska, (13 states participated.)

Along with this and other exceptional showings, the Rocky team (except for one member) won the State Championship at Butte.

Thanks to the great sacrifices of Mr. Bill Jamison, this weightlifting program has been made possible.

The team and Mr. Jamison have done a good job of proving that hard work produces ripe fruits.
